26th ANNUAL STUDENT SHOW

March 8 – April 12, 2018

The Copley Society of Art is proud to present the 26th Annual Student Show, a month-long juried exhibition of students' work from local New England art schools. This exhibition opens with a reception on Thursday, March 8th from 5:30 to 7:30pm at the ColSo Gallery, located at 158 Newbury Street, Boston, MA 02116, and continues through April 12, 2018.

This year's show features a range of styles and media including painting, photography, graphite, and plywood. ColSo is honored to have Michael David, Chair of the Fine Arts Department at Lesley University, jury this year's Student Show. Three pieces were awarded "Juror's Choice" prizes: Samantha Elsaesser's photograph Brunswick County, Elizabeth Flood's oil painting Roadkill, and Ron Prigat's monotype Diana Dreaming.

Congratulations to the following students, who will be featured in the exhibit along with their colleagues:

Ramona Clark, Maine College of Art
Samantha Elsaesser, University of New Hampshire
Elizabeth Flood, Boston University
William Karlen, Boston University

Rachel Nelson, Middlebury College
Ron Prigat, University of New Hampshire
Makoto Saji, New England College
Shayna Yacyshyn, Framingham State University

The Copley Society of Art (ColSo), America's oldest non-profit arts organization, is committed to the advancement, enjoyment, and promotion of its member artists and the visual arts. The organization, founded in 1879, comprises juried artists who are selected by a credentialed art committee. ColSo provides artists with a gallery for exhibiting and selling their work and a platform for engaging and educating the community.
