NEW MEMBERS' SHOW 2017

January 12 – February 9, 2016

The Copley Society of Art is proud to present the 21 new members accepted into the gallery in 2016. The Membership Committee of the Copley Society of Art meets three times per year to review the applications of prospective artist members. The Committee assesses each applicant on the strength of their body of work, and accepts for membership only those whose work is truly outstanding. Artist membership at the Copley Society of Art is extremely competitive and reflects ColSo's commitment to emerging artists. Those who are invited to join the organization represent a great diversity of styles, media, and techniques. To celebrate our New Members' Show, an opening reception will be held on Thursday, January 12th from 5:30pm – 7:30 PM at the ColSo Gallery, located at 158 Newbury Street in Boston.

Congratulations to all who became Copley Society members this past year:

Jacob Aguiar (Scarborough, ME), David Campbell (Somerville, MA), Renee Caouette (Pembroke, MA), Deborah Dendler (Newton, MA), Nan Hass Feldman (Boston/Framingham, MA), Christopher Firger (Arlington, MA), Josephine Foote (Cambridge, MA), Anna Kasabian (Manchester-by-the-Sea, MA), Connie Kolman (Sudbury, MA), Mirela Kulovic (Somerville, MA), Paula Lazar (Jamaica Plain, MA), Rose Leitner (Boston, MA), Meg McLean (Lyme, NH), Paul Noel (Wells, ME), Francis Noonan (Williamsville, NY), Benjamin Patterson (West Boxford, MA), Elliot Portman (Brookline, MA), Caroline Rufo (Needham, MA), Richard Sullivan (Louisville, KY), Gary Tucker (Boston, MA), and Ron Wybranowski (North Andover, MA).

The Copley Society of Art (ColSo), America's oldest non-profit arts organization, is committed to the advancement, enjoyment, and promotion of its member artists and the visual arts. The organization, founded in 1879, comprises juried artists who are selected by a credentialed art committee. ColSo provides artists with a gallery for exhibiting and selling their work and a platform for engaging and educating the community.
